

iHelix SERVICES

Sajix provides services that cater to the needs of the entire healthcare delivery continuum. iHelix is the web-based healthcare management product that automates Patient Management, Clinical Management, Financial Accounting and Hospital Back Office processes. These processes when combined with our medical management expertise, work together to maximize savings and improve clinical outcomes.

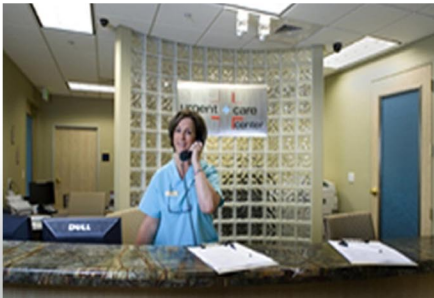

iHelix SERVICES

iHelix services is an integrated service model where healthcare organizations can outsource certain healthcare operations to Sajix. Sajix combines its technology and experienced staff to perform the business operations in cost effective and accurate manner.

FRONT OFFICE

Sajix provides integrated front office business process operation solution by combining its software and staff. The business operation includes the patient appointment, insurance verification and referral management. Customer gets the benefit of software system and reduced cost of operation.

CODING

Transforming clinical care to financial transaction in accurate and timely manner is key to success of healthcare provider business. iHelix-coding services is designed to transform the clinical services to claims by using built-in coding database and coding specialist.

REVENUE CYCLE

The revenue cycle management services provide creation of billing transaction to collection and posting into accounting system. The Revenue Cycle Management, patient accounting, workflow and experienced staff together helps reimbursement and account receivable run smoothly.

